

FCC,

I would like it to be know that my family and I would not like the see the do not call law removed from Indiana. We do not think that it is the right of banks or any other business to call us at home if we do not want the to do so. They still have the ability to send information by mail and this is acceptable, but calling us during the evening or any other time is not. Thank you!

Darryl Woolsey and family